{STATUS QUO - WHITE MAN - 116 WORDS} The American Dream means you put in the work and you too can own a home of your own. But look at any city in America and you'll see the predictable results of big government over-reach, getting in the way of that dream by tying up free markets in endless regulations. Our housing crisis – with people who are struggling to make ends meet priced out of communities and entire cities, and homeless people sleeping in the streets – can only be fixed when we cut the red tape that holds back new construction, so entrepreneurs and developers can build new units to meet the growing need for housing and bring down the prices for all of us.

{SSC} {PEOPLE FIRST - WHITE MAN - 119 WORDS} Most of us want to provide for our families, have a safe place to call home, and pursue our dreams, regardless of what we look like or where we come from. But today, politicians set housing regulations and policies that make it harder for people struggling to make ends meet to find and afford a safe place of their own. We need our leaders to put people first. By joining together, we can change policies to benefit all of us, like building more affordable options or regulating rent increases to limit how much someone can increase our rent. Together we can ensure everyone, regardless of zip code, has a place to live our lives and care for our families.

{SSC} {HISTORY OF RACISM - WHITE MAN - 112 WORDS} Regardless of income or race, people want to live where we can reach our highest potential and contribute to our communities. Yet our nation’s history of racial discrimination and predatory actions have forced people of color to pay higher rent for lower quality housing, and higher interest rates for worse mortgages. Decades of discriminatory housing policies mean that today, many working people of color struggle to afford a roof over their heads while profit-driven landlords keep extracting more rent and evicting longtime residents. The time is now to address gaping inequality by protecting tenants from unfair rent increases, providing subsidies for lower income renters and homeowners, and ensuring anti-discrimination protections are enforced.

{SSC} {HEALTH AND WELLBEING- WHITE MAN - 123 WORDS} No matter where we’re from or where we live, having a safe, stable place to come home to is the foundation for our wellbeing and mental health; it’s where we celebrate our good times and recover from the rest. But today, because of unfair rules, too many of us are left merely surviving in unhealthy environments or under the threat that one unforeseen problem will have us out on the street. For people to be and stay well both physically and mentally, for children to grow and elders to flourish, we need to ensure that everyone has housing they can count on. But today, certain politicians and the richest corporations and real-estate developers who back them keep this most basic of human needs out of our reach. They’ve handed themselves kickbacks and created tax loopholes while jacking up rents and tearing down affordable options to build luxury housing. Home should not be a luxury available only to the rich. We need to join together to rewrite the rules to build housing that all of us can afford and to ensure rents are fairly regulated. But today, major developers, Wall Street investors, corporate landlords, and the lawmakers who give their greed free rein, have raised rents out of reach and put homeowners at risk of foreclosure all over again. These wealthy few treat the places where we live our lives as a source of endless profits for themselves. {SSC} {EMPLOYMENT AND HOUSING - AA WOMAN - 114 WORDS} We all need a place to call home and rest after a hard day of work. But for more than 18 million Americans, the cost of housing is more than half of their income, making it tough to feel truly stable. There is an unmistakable connection between housing and employment opportunities because without housing you are unlikely to hold down a job and without a job you are unlikely to have access to housing. For this reason, we need to come together and advocate for a broad range of housing policies -- from localized rent control and investments in affordable housing to legislation that raises the minimum wage and increases employment opportunities across communities.

{SSD} {EMPLOYMENT AND HOUSING - WHITE MAN - 114 WORDS} We all need a place to call home and rest after a hard day of work. But for more than 18 million Americans, the cost of housing is more than half of their income, making it tough to feel truly stable. There is an unmistakable connection between housing and employment opportunities because without housing you are unlikely to hold down a job and without a job you are unlikely to have access to housing. For this reason, we need to come together and advocate for a broad range of housing policies -- from localized rent control and investments in affordable housing to legislation that raises the minimum wage and increases employment opportunities across communities.
